FOOTBALL.

I REMEMBER.

When I first began to creep,
How I crawled straight into mischief—

How I wouldn't go to sleep—

How I pulled the table linen—

With the contents on floor—

How my mother spanked me for it—

Till my tender-flesh was sore.

I remember, I remember,

When I first began to talk;

And I also well remember,

Tho' the day I tried to walk;

Firm I grasped old Jowler's collar;

But he gave a sudden hop—

So into a pan of water,

Jowler spit this child over slop.

I remember, I remember,

When I used to go to school,

How I kept a watchful eye on

The schoolmaster's rod and rule,

How I cut up monkey shins;

Every time his back was turned—

How I sometimes used to catch it,

When I'd not my lesson learned.

I remember, I remember,

When I used to go to school,

How I kept a watchful eye on

The schoolmaster's rod and rule,

How I cut up monkey shins;

Every time his back was turned—

How I sometimes used to catch it,

When I'd not my lesson learned.

I remember, I remember,

When the girls I used to kiss,

How a dog came out and caught me;

By the surplus of my breeches;

How I hung on to the bushes—

How the dog hung fast to me,

Till my cryings brought a man who

Flagged me most "owful-ee."

I remember, I remember,

THE REPUBLICAN

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1853.

We are authorised to announce GEORGE W. PINSON, as a candidate for Sheriff of Benton County.

We are authorised to announce ALEXANDER BROWN, as a candidate for Sheriff of Benton County.

We are authorised to announce CALDWELL SUBLITT, as a candidate for Sheriff of Benton County.

We are authorised to announce SEVIER ELSTON, as a candidate for Tax Collector of Benton County.

We will receive for debts due this office, the small bills of goods Banks of other States, the circulation of which is prohibited by the new Code. We have made arrangements to send them off, and understand that their reception under these circumstances will not be a violation of the law, and in order that our patrons may avail themselves of this further advantage, wherever it be such, we will prolong the time of taking advance subscriptions to two weeks beyond the 1st of February.

Those at a distance, to whom we have not forwarded accounts, can remit to us by mail postage paid at our risk; and whether they send over or under the amount due, they shall receive a credit of one year for every two dollars sent.

The New Code.

A writer in the "West Alabamian," questions the fact, whether or not the new Code is law: 1st because, according to the requirements of the Constitution it was not introduced or received or treated by either house as a bill. 2nd, It was not read on three several days, nor even once in either house; nor was the reading dispensed with, by a vote of four-fifths. It has no enacting clause, and is not, signed by the speaker of the House and President of the Senate. We have the word of the writer for these and other defects stated, but supposing them to exist, we presume they will be found obviated, by the reading, signing &c. of the bill adopting the Code. We can hardly believe that the Governor, and officers and members of both houses, would have furnished to the State a Code having such gross constitutional defects.

We have heard some complaint in this Section, on account of the inconvenience experienced by the suppression of change bills, and some objections to other portions of the Code: but this inconvenience will soon pass off, and the objectionable features will no doubt be found less formidable than anticipated.

News by TELEGRAPH.—Under this head our readers will find in to-day's paper, and each week hereafter, the latest statement of the Cotton market, in New York, Baltimore, Charleston, Savannah, Augusta, Mobile and New Orleans, and also the prices of other leading articles in which they are interested in all those places, together with items of foreign and domestic news of more than usual interest. The publication of these Telegraphic despatches, renders a standing price current, corrected weekly, totally useless, inasmuch as the news by Telegraph, usually reaches us from the most distant of the places mentioned, by way of Charleston and Montgomery, within two days.

For the ability thus promptly to furnish our readers with the latest and most important Telegraphic news we shall be constantly indebted to the Publishers of the Charleston semi-weekly Courier & Mercury, the Daily Journal and weekly Advertiser and Gazette, a paper which has been kind to us, and has kept up with us, (greater exchange) a constant and edge the receipt from

We at last southern mail, of a friend, which pays in advance for five dollars two years and six months. Our friends deserve the thanks of the paper press. We would say to others who may wish to do like-wise that we have room enough left, for a few more of the same sort."

THE TRIPARTITE TREATY.—We insert in to-day's paper a large portion of Mr. Everett's letter to the French Minister at Washington, in answer to a proposal submitted in July last to Mr. Webster, the then Secretary of State, by the English and French Ministers, to enter into a tripartite treaty with England & France, disclaiming on the part of the three powers, any intention now and hereafter, to obtain possession of the Island of Cuba. The letter is elegantly written, and has been generally approved by all parties. It assumes true American ground on this and all similar questions, and will be found to contain a clear and forcible expression of the policy of our Government in its intercourse with European nations

Penmanship.

We have the pleasure of announcing to the young Ladies and Gentlemen of Jacksonville, that they now have an opportunity, which may not present itself again in many years, of learning to write a correct and beautiful hand, from an experienced and gentlemanly Professor of the useful art of Penmanship.

We have been highly gratified by an examination of the masterly specimens of Mr. Tisdale's handwriting, and we unhesitatingly pronounce them to be far superior to any ever before exhibited in this section of the State.

The specimens of improvements made by Mr. Tisdale's pupils in Georgia and elsewhere, are striking evidences of his ability to impart a practical knowledge of his exquisite art to others.

We will receive for debts due this office, the small bills of goods Banks of other States, the circulation of which is prohibited by the new Code. We have made arrangements to send them off, and understand that their reception under these circumstances will not be a violation of the law, and in order that our patrons may avail themselves of this further advantage, wherever it be such, we will prolong the time of taking advance subscriptions to two weeks beyond the 1st of February.

Those at a distance, to whom we have not forwarded accounts, can remit to us by mail postage paid at our risk; and whether they send over or under the amount due, they shall receive a credit of one year for every two dollars sent.
